THE KOMAR (KRAVCHENKO) AFFAIR IN [REDACTED] MESSAGES

1. The messages translated below are submitted for their possible intelligence value. They were transmitted from New York to Moscow in the system [REDACTED] during 1944.

2. It is evident from the contents that the deserter KOMAR was Viktor Andreyevich Kravchenko. The word KOMAR may be translated Gnat.

3. New York-Moscow message 613 [first part of 327] of 3 May 1944:
To (?PETROV?).

Your telegram no. 195.

1. Our --1U-- as a result of (?your?) "interrogation", visited Carthage [Washington], met the well-known Fascist (known to you) ST--?--PENKOV (is working now at --2F-- (?book?) "DOK"), who when he had drunk quite a bit, let on that he had a connection with the desertion of KOMAR, with whom he had gotten together four times, had gotten him drunk and had carried on "cordial conversations." KOMAR acted, as it were, from considerations "based on ideas", "sufficiently --4FU-- 20 years". At the same time, ST--?--PENKOV acknowledged that a no less powerful motive was the desire for an easy, comfort-affording life and did not deny that this was just what produced on KOMAR an irresistible impression. S. helped KOMAR come into contact with urbanites [citizens of the U.S.]. --1G-- [at this time? for security?] he met him in a club for military personnel located in the same building as the "Associated Press," conducted K. to the doors of that agency, which at once got in touch with SHAPLIN. Thereafter SHAPLIN took the affair of K. into his own hands and K. went to Tyre [New York]. By what ST--?--PENKOV said, SHAPLIN knows K.'s whereabouts and continues to maintain contact with the latter. K. at present does not doubt that "they will liquidate" him. Constantly --1F-- (?to inflate the importance of?) --2F-- and in that way obtain (?the possibility of?) --3FU-- (?to lead?) a quiet and comfort-affording life. The letter in the Times^c was written by SHAPLIN. Inquiry was choked off because (?the League?) (did) not --32F--

SKRIAGIN. The last meeting between them was six months ago, after which contact was so to speak ripped off. By S.'s account he met SKRIAGIN for about two weeks. The latter was interested in the newspaper "ROSSIYA" and attempted through S. to influence RUBAKOV*, apparently not realizing that S. was a long-time contributor to the paper.

Nikolay P. Rubakov (Rybakov), editor of Rossiya.

4. New York-Moscow message 614 [conclusion of 137] of 3 May 1944:

To (?PETROV?).

Conclusion of telegram no. 327.

--1U-- SKRIAGIN, ST--?--PENKOV --2F-- (during their acquaintance?) --2F-- (?wrote an article?) "(?Russia?)" --2F, 1U-- SKRIAGIN and thereafter discontinued the appointments. The meetings took place in SKRIAGIN's apartment. One day ST--?--PENKOV met there (7127) Soviet persons, among them KOMAR.

Recently ST--?--PENKOV --1U, 6F, 2U-- a member of ^{ZHAR} ~~SKRIAGIN~~ SKRIAGIN's chorus, ALEKSEYEV (--5F-- K.T.S.N.P.: OSIPOV, a cavalry man^a).

2. OLA in Carthage [Washington] has made the acquaintance of the American (woman) GUNNINGHAM^a of the well-known PRABODY family. The latter works at a secret receiver of foreign radio transmissions, including those from the U.S.S.R. To listen to transmissions from the U.S.S.R. with this receiver is the business of

5-6 persons, all urbanites [U.S. citizens]. There are no Russians. CUMMINGS is friends with ST-7--PENKOV. In her house lives the Soviet --1U-- LOMONOSOV. ST-7--PENKOV (7has palmed off? 7is palming off?) --4F-- newspaper "ROSSIYA" --3F-- his name with (?the Bank? [U.S. State Department]). --9F, 2U--.

Recently it chanced that OLA became acquainted with SHAPLIN. The instructions given her are (?to try cautiously?) to enter into closer relations with the latter, --2F-- ST-7--PENKOV and, if the possibility presents itself, to ascertain more detailed intelligence about the KOMAR affair. OLA is well acquainted with ESTRINA, who is in --1U--. She looked after^c her work in the "Union of Russian (?Jews?)" in connection with OLA's entering --1F-- they have not met for a long time, but in case OLA can (?continue their old social acquaintance??), we think (?OLA will be able to?) --3F-- with ESTRINA and SHAPLIN.

^a Russian: KAVALERIST. However, it must be pointed out that a new reading of message 700 on changes in covernames makes the list start out with KAVALERIST--(?BEI?). Whether or not KAVALERIST in the present message is that covername cannot now be decided.

^b Russian: KANNINGEM.

^c Or "kept an eye on."

5. New York-Moscow message 654 [359] of 9 May 1944:

To (?PETROV?).

Your telegram no. 195. --2F-- KOMAR is living outside the city. From time to time he gets into Tyre [New York]. I. --3F-- SHAPLIN and the right-hand man of KERENSEVOY, ZENZINOV. The latter related that KOMAR --1F-- SHAPLIN --25F-- that the latter [plural] can make him acquainted with KOMAR.

Your telegram no. 1887. SERGEY met with VISSON^a of the line (1st cover?)^b. VISSON --25F--. He knows GAL'PERIN^c well. VISSON --4F-- GREEN^d data on KOMAR. ...

^a So the Russian; possible VISSON.

^b The word identified as LINIYA (line) seems to have some secret meaning as yet undetermined, possibly referring to grades within the network of spies and contacts.

^c Persons of this name settling abroad sometimes spell it HALPERIN, if they hale from sections of Russia where G is pronounced H.

^d Russian: GRIN.

The rest is even more fragmentary, but VISSON and GAL'PERIN occur again once apiece. The signature is RAY.

7. New York-Moscow message 726 [394] of 20 May 1944:
To (?PETROV?).

According to intelligence from MAH--?--, KOMAR is living in KERENSKOY's country house in the State of Connecticut. Details are being ascertained.

9. New York-Moscow message 1144 [second (and final) part of 634] of 10 August 1944 is so incompletely readable that it would serve little purpose at present to attempt a translation. At any rate, the occurrence of the name KOMAR near the end of it seems to have little bearing on the main subject. It is probable that the message deals with political intrigue in Mexico and mentions one or more parties by covername. A member of the staff of the police (TOR'KI = Trotakytas?) of the U.S., Cochran(e), would seem to be "using" (the desertion of?) KOMAR (for anti-Stalinist propaganda?).

10. New York-Moscow message 1145 of 10 August 1948:

To VIKTOR.

1. KOMAR told TIUL'PAN [Tulip] that he had --1F-- (?the firm?) of a friend of (KAPITAN's? [Roosevelt's]) --14F-- (sur-name --2U--), --3F--. Then K. decided to conduct --25F-- (with?) MAX EASTMAN arrived --15F-- OLA (?it has been ascertained?) that K. is living at the address 209 West 97 Street.

IZEMZINOV told OLA --2F-- K. will --1U-- in a month. K.'s first task --3F-- threaten (?his family?) with persecution --3F-- --(an) agronomist --4F-- --2F-- K. --4F-- among whom, as it were, also co-operate with us, took part in --3F-- --1U--. In Carthage [Washington], K. --1F-- received from her a letter, that his surviving parent^a [or "abandoned parents"] had died and that (?she?) wanted to stop work^b.

2. ESTHINA told TIUL'PAN --25F-- FISHER^c. Details are being ascertained.
